PETITIONING THE COURT*To issue a warrant.

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number	Nature of Noncompliance
1	Mandatory Condition #2: The defendant shall not commit another Federal, state, or local crime. Supporting Evidence: Tyrone Carell violated the conditions of his supervised release in Spokane, Washington, by escaping from Washington State's Department of Corrections (DOC) supervision on August 11, 2014, which resulted in a warrant being issued. On August 13, 2014, the undersigned officer conducted a criminal records check which revealed the aforementioned active warrant. It is noted that the query was conducted after the undersigned officer attempted to establish contact with the offender at his last known residence in Spokane, on August 12, 2014.
2	Standard Condition #2: The defendant shall report to the probation officer in a manner and frequency directed by the court or probation officer. Supporting Evidence: Tyrone Carell violated the conditions of his supervised release in Spokane, Washington, by failing to report to the U.S. Probation Office on August 5, 2014, as required. It is noted, the offender was directed to appear in the U.S. Probation Office on a weekly basis effective June 6, 2014. The decision to require the offender to appear in the office, on a weekly basis, centered around his inability to appropriately adjust while under supervision. Specifically, the offender changed his residence without prior approval from his supervising probation officer in June 2014.
